PROGRAMME EVALUATION

About the course

The increasing demand for programmes to show meaningful impacts and results is leading to an increase in demand for the availability and use of programme evaluation information. In ensuring better programme delivery, programme evaluation can help to identify strengths and gaps, improve programmes, scale up and follow through on approaches that work best, identify standards, and modify or discontinue those that are less effective. This course will equip you with practical experience in the design of a conceptual framework, metrics and indicators, use of evaluation analytics tools, and development and communication of an evaluation plan and results.
